1 Club One Casino, Inc., the above-captioned debtor and debtor in possession 2 (the “Debtor”), hereby files this motion (the “Motion”) for entry of an order approving the 3 letter agreement (the “Engagement Contract”) dated October 9, 2015, by and between the 4 Debtor and GlassRatner Advisory & Capital Group, LLC (“GlassRatner”, or the “Firm”).
5 Pursuant to the Engagement Contract, Bill Hughes (“Mr. Hughes”) will serve as Chief 6 Restructuring Officer (“CRO”). In addition, GlassRatner shall provide the services of other 7 GlassRatner personnel at the direction of the CRO, but only with the consent of the Debtor.
8 Such additional personnel will bill at their stated hourly rates (the “Additional Personnel”). In 9 support of this Motion, the Debtor submits the Declaration of Hughes (the “Hughes 10 Declaration”), and further respectfully represents as follows:

11 I. JURISDICTION

12 The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This 13 matter is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A) and (M). Venue is 14 proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. These matters have been 15 referred to the Court by United States District Court for the Eastern District of California 16 according to General Orders 182 and 223. The statutory bases for the relief requested herein 17 are sections 105 and 363 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and 18 Rules 9014, 6004 and 2002(a)(2) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (“FRBP”).

19 II. BACKGROUND

20 On October 14, 2015 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for 21 relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”). The 22 Debtor continues to operate and manage its affairs as a debtor in possession pursuant to 23 sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or committee has 24 been appointed in this chapter 11 case.

25 Debtor was incorporated on March 28, 1994, for the purpose of operating an 26 entertainment complex located in central Fresno called Club One Casino. Club One Casino 27 began operation in November 1995 and includes a gaming facility, bar, restaurant and banquet 28 facilities, administration, satellite wagering, and security offices. The gaming facility includes

1 51 card-tables contained in designated settings that allow patrons to engage in various table 2 games as allowed under state law. Over its two decades in business, the Debtor has grown to 3 become a significant community presence, a substantial taxpayer and a major employer in the 4 Fresno area: it currently has about 280 active employees with a semi-monthly gross payroll of 5 approximately $265,000.00.

6 Since 2008, the Debtor has suffered from litigation generated by its former owners – 7 George Sarantos (“Sarantos”) and Elaine Long (“Elaine”). Sarantos and Elaine - who already 8 have received over $22 million in cash, and subordinated unsecured notes with current balances 9 totaling approximately $4,150,000.00 each, from their sale of the Club One Casino to the 10 Debtor’s current ownership - are seeking an additional $2.7 million. Despite the best efforts of 11 the Debtor and its ownership to resolve disputes with Sarantos and Long on a consensual basis, 12 the former owners continue to pursue aggressive collection efforts against Club One Casino.
13 Sarantos, together with certain former employees of the Debtor and others, also engaged in 14 activities to harm the Debtor by using unlawful financing to relocate and expand a competitor 15 to Club One Casino, called the Clovis 500 Club.

16 The Debtor and its parent holding company were forced to commence their Chapter 11
17 cases in order to forestall Sarantos and Long’s attempts to obtain the appointment of a receiver 18 over Club One Casino, to preserve its on-going business operations and to address financial 19 challenges to its business precipitated by unlawful competition from Clovis 500 Club by 20 restructuring its debts through the reorganization process.

21 Additional factual background regarding the Debtor, including its current and historical 22 business operations and the events precipitating its chapter 11 filing, is set forth in detail in the 23 Declaration of Kyle R. Kirkland in Support of the Motion filed contemporaneously with this 24 Motion and incorporated herein by reference.

25 III. RELIEF REQUESTED

26 By this Motion, the Debtor requests the entry of an order, pursuant to sections 105 and 27 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, approving the Engagement Contract attached hereto as Exhibit 1 28 to the Hughes Declaration. Pursuant to the Engagement Contract, Mr. Hughes will serve as

1 CRO and the Additional Personnel will perform other services required of GlassRatner under 2 the Engagement Contract. In support of this Motion, the Debtor relies on the Hughes 3 Declaration and the Kirkland Declaration.

4 The Debtor's relief requested herein is necessary to the successful administration of the 5 Bankruptcy Case since some of the Debtor's principals are also principals of the Debtor's 6 largest secured creditor, KMGI, Inc. ("KMGI") and the Debtor's parent, Club One Acquisition 7 Corp. ("COAC"), which is also a debtor in a companion chapter 11 case pending before the 8 Court (Case No. 15-14021-B-11). The Debtor requires the CRO and GlassRatner to 9 immediately begin providing services of an experienced CRO to guide existing management 10 through a restructuring of the Debtor's operations and a successful resolution of its chapter 11 11 case. Further, any delay of the CRO's and GlassRatner's services could cause irreparable harm 12 to the Debtor's estate.

13 Mr. Hughes and GlassRatner will assist management in evaluating strategic alternatives, 14 communicating with the Debtor's stakeholders, and providing business plan analysis for the 15 purpose of, ultimately, assisting the in the preparation of a plan of reorganization and disclosure 16 statement to maximize value for the estate. Without such services, it would be difficult, if not 17 impossible, for the Debtor to gather and analyze the financial information necessary to its 18 reorganization and the preparation of a disclosure statement that complies with the 19 requirements of section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code.

20 IV. QUALIFICATIONS

21 A. Qualifications of Bill Hughes

22 Mr. Hughes is a senior managing director at GlassRatner with nearly 20 years of 23 experience in the formation and evaluation of strategic restructuring alternatives, the 24 development of plans of reorganization and the disposition of assets. Mr. Hughes also has 25 extensive experience in working on sales or other fundamental transactions in distressed 26 situations or chapter 11 cases, including Section 363 asset sales. Mr. Hughes graduated from 27 Arizona State University where he majored in Accounting and he is a licensed Certified Public 28 Accountant in Arizona. Mr. Hughes is also Certified Insolvency and Restructuring Advisor and

1 received his credential as a Certified Fraud Examiner from the Association of Certified Fraud
2 Examiners. In 2014, Mr. Hughes was appointed by Governor Jan Brewer to the Maricopa 3 County Commission on Trial Court Appointments to investigate, interview and evaluate 4 applicants for judgeships.

5 Mr. Hughes specializes in advising on bankruptcies, reorganizations and business 6 restructurings and in providing expert witness testimony for issues including lost profit, fraud, 7 cash collateral and valuation. The compensation arrangement reflected in the Engagement 8 Contract is consistent with, and typical of, arrangements entered into by Mr. Hughes and other 9 restructuring management consulting experts with respect to rendering similar services for 10 clients such as the Debtor.

11 Mr. Hughes has served as a financial advisor in many bankruptcy-related matters.
12 Some of the notable engagements in which he was involved include: The Majestic Star Casino, 13 LLC; Herbst Gaming, Inc; Integrated Health Services, Inc.; Aladdin Gaming Holdings, LLC;
14 and Resort at Summerlin, LP. Mr. Hughes also served as a financial advisor to the Official 15 Committee of Non-Bondholder Unsecured Creditors in re: Hollywood Casino Shreveport et al.
16 as well as serving as a financial advisor to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors in 17 the chapter 11 matter of GB Holdings, Inc., the former owner and operator of the Sands Hotel
18 and Casino in Atlantic City.. Mr. Hughes's further qualifications are detailed in the Hughes 19 Declaration.

20 Prior to joining GlassRatner, Mr. Hughes held senior positions with XRoads Solutions 21 Group, LLC; Mesirow Financial Consulting; and the Corporate Recovery practice of KPMG, 22 LLP.

23 B. Qualifications of GlassRatner

24 The Debtor believes that GlassRatner is well qualified to advise and assist the Debtor in 25 connection with a successful restructuring that will maximize value for stakeholders.
26 GlassRatner has significant and extensive experience providing similar financial advisory 27 services, has an excellent reputation for providing such services throughout the United States 28 and internationally, and has the resources necessary to provide these complex and highly

1 specialized services. GlassRatner was founded in 2001 and has eight offices in five states, 2 including offices in Bakersfield, California. GlassRatner provides a broad range of corporate 3 advisory services to its clients including, without limitation, services pertaining to: (i) general 4 financial advice, (ii) mergers, acquisitions and divestitures, (iii) special committee assignments, 5 (iv) capital raising and (v) corporate restructuring. GlassRatner and its senior professionals 6 have extensive experience in providing financial advisory services to distressed companies and 7 to creditors, equity holders, asset purchasers and other constituencies in reorganization 8 proceedings and complex financial restructurings, both in- and out-of-court. Since 2002, 9 GlassRatner has been involved in over 50 announced or completed restructurings representing 10 in excess of $5 Billion of restructured liabilities. For instance, GlassRatner and its 11 professionals are providing or have provided financial advisory, investment banking and other 12 services in connection with the restructuring of: Crumbs Bake Shops, U.S. Coal, Sea Island 13 Company and Southwest Recreational Industries. The Debtor has selected GlassRatner based 14 on its experience and expertise in providing financial advisory services in Chapter 11 cases 15 throughout the country.

16 The Debtor has determined that obtaining the services of a CRO and other personnel 17 with casino turnaround and chapter 11 experience will enhance its ability to (a) operate and 18 meet its administrative obligations in this Bankruptcy Case and (b) preserve and maximize the 19 value of its assets pending any sale. As such, the Debtor has chosen to utilize GlassRatner 20 personnel as appropriate and has appointed Mr. Hughes, of GlassRatner, to the position of 21 CRO, subject to the Court granting this Motion.

22 GlassRatner and Mr. Hughes have significant knowledge of the casino industry and will 23 be in a position to become familiar with the Debtor's financial affairs, debt structure, operations 24 and related matters. GlassRatner has developed relevant experience regarding the casino 25 industry that will assist it in providing effective and efficient services to the Debtor in this 26 Bankruptcy Case.

27 As such, the Debtor believes that GlassRatner is well-qualified and able to advise it in a 28 cost-effective, efficient and timely manner. The Debtor has been advised by GlassRatner that it

1 will endeavor to coordinate with the other professionals retained in this Bankruptcy Case to 2 eliminate unnecessary duplication or overlap of work. Therefore, the Debtor submits that the 3 retention and employment of GlassRatner is in the best interests of its estate, creditors and other 4 stakeholders in this Bankruptcy Case.

5 V. SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED

6 By this Motion, the Debtor seeks an order authorizing the employment of GlassRatner 7 to provide CRO services as described in the Engagement Contract (the “Services”).

8 The duties and powers of the CRO are enumerated in the Engagement Contract and are 9 as follows:

- 10 1. The CRO shall be an officer of the Debtor and shall have the duties similar to 11 that of a Chief Executive Officer including, but not limited to: (a) assisting in all 12 aspects of the Debtor’s business activities and operations, including budgeting, 13 cash management and financial management; (b) negotiations regarding the 14 relationship with the Debtor’s lenders, and investors (c) negotiations with 15 vendors, customers and other creditors (d) hiring and terminating of employees 16 of the Debtor (see limitation in Par. 2), (e) review of daily operating activity, (f) 17 evaluating liquidity options including restructuring, refinancing and 18 reorganizing; (g) reviewing purchases and expenses and (h) acting as the 19 Debtor’s representative in court hearings as appropriate.
- 20 2. The CRO understands that the Debtor has engaged the law firm of Klein 21 DeNatale Goldner as its counsel (“KDG”), and that the powers of the CRO do 22 not include the power to terminate KDG or to terminate the shareholder 23 employees. Only the Board can vote to terminate a shareholder employee or 24 replace KDG.
- 25 3. The CRO shall assist the Debtor in pursuing a refinancing or restructuring of the 26 obligations due the Debtor’s secured lender which may include solicitation of 27 multiple capital sources but shall only be involved in any refinancing efforts or 28 negotiations to the extent requested by the Board of Directors.

- 1           4. The CRO shall assist the Debtor in evaluating and executing restructuring 2           alternatives.
- 3           5. The CRO shall not have authority over (a) approving a sale of substantially all 4           the assets of the Debtor; and, (b) causing the Debtor to commence a proceeding
5           under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code or to take such other judicial action
6           with respect to the Debtor. Again these activities would require Board approval 7           and appropriate Board resolutions.
- 8           6. The CRO, who shall not be a director of the Board, shall report to the Board of 9           the Debtor provided, however, that the CRO shall not require the consent or 10          approval of the Board to take action (or elect not to take action) in such officer's 11          capacity as CRO; provided further, however, the CRO shall routinely consult 12          and provide the Board with the status of actions which have been initiated 13          and/or actions which are being planned but not yet initiated.

14           Notwithstanding anything in the Engagement Contract to the contrary, the Debtor is 15          permitted to indemnify those persons serving as corporate officers on the same terms as 16          provided to the Debtor's other officers and directors under the corporate by-laws and applicable 17          state law. There shall be no other indemnification of GlassRatner or its affiliates. Accordingly, 18          as part of this Motion, the Debtor requests that the Court approve the indemnification 19          provisions as set forth therein as modified by the above language.

20           Notwithstanding any provisions of the Engagement Contract to the contrary, consistent 21          with the "Jay Alix Protocol" implemented by the Office of the United States Trustee, Mr.
22          Hughes and GlassRatner agree that:

23                   In the event the Debtor seeks to have any of the Additional Personnel assume 24                   executive officer positions other than Mr. Hughes, or to materially change the 25                   terms of the engagement by modifying the functions of the executive officer 26                   personnel, a motion to modify the employment as such will be filed.

26                   No principal, employee, or independent contractor of GLASSRATNER and its 27                   affiliates will serve as a director of the Debtor during the pendency of the Debtor's 28                   chapter 11 case.

28                   For a period of three (3) years after the conclusion of the engagement, neither
                      GlassRatner nor any of its affiliates will make any investments in the Debtor.

VI. PROFESSIONAL COMPENSATION

The Debtor and GlassRatner have agreed to the proposed compensation and payment structure summarized below and set forth in detail in the Engagement contract (the “Fee Structure”):

- (a) Hourly Fee: The Debtor has agreed to pay the CRO at the rate of $375.00 per hour subject to a monthly maximum on fees billed each month (“Monthly Cap”) for the services of the CRO outlined in the Engagement Contract. The Monthly Cap for the first month of the engagement will be $25,000.00, and $15,000.00 per month thereafter. The Engagement Contract can be terminated by either party with 30 days written notice. Payment will be due following entry of an order approving the Services Agreement between the Debtor and GlassRatner and on the 1st of each month thereafter. It is contemplated that the CRO will average approximately fifteen (15) hours per week during the first month and ten (10) hours per week thereafter. Travel time shall be compensated at 25% of the stated hourly rate.
- (b) Fees in Excess of Monthly Cap: Should GlassRatner or CRO incur fees during any specific month that exceed the Monthly Cap, (“Unbilled Fees”), such fees shall be treated as follows:
  - i. 50% of the Unbilled Fees shall be carried over and billed in the month immediately following, and
  - ii. 50% of the Unbilled Fees shall be permanently written off by GlassRatner.
- (c) Standard Hourly Rate: At the present time, GlassRatner does not anticipate the need for Additional Personnel to assist the CRO. If Additional Personnel is required, GlassRatner will provide a supplemental declaration to this Motion.
- (d) Cash on Account: The Debtor did not make any deposit or pay any retainer to GlassRatner before the commencement of the case.

In addition to the hourly rates set forth above, the Debtor shall reimburse both GlassRatner and the CRO respectively for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with this engagement such as travel, lodging, telephone and facsimile charges. Further, should GlassRatner provide litigation support consulting or forensic accounting, those services will be billed in addition to the CRO services.

GlassRatner shall file with the Court, with copies to the United States Trustee and all official committees, a monthly report of staffing on the engagement for the previous month.

1 Such report shall include the names and functions filled of the individuals assigned. All 2 staffing shall be subject to review by the Court in the event an objection is filed.

3 GlassRatner shall file with the Court (and serve copies on the United States Trustee and 4 any official committees appointed in this case contemporaneously with such filing) reports of 5 compensation earned and expenses incurred on at least a quarterly basis. Such reports shall 6 contain summary charts which describe services provided, identify the compensation earned by 7 each executive officer and staff employee provided, and itemize the expenses incurred. Time 8 records for all GlassRatner Additional Personnel other than the CRO shall (i) be appended to 9 the reports, (ii) contain detailed time entries describing the task(s) performed, and (iii) be 10 organized by project category. When GlassRatner personnel are providing services at an 11 hourly rate, such personnel shall record their time entries in increments of no greater than one-12 tenth hour (.1). All compensation shall be subject to review by the Court in the event an 13 objection is filed. The first quarterly report will be submitted forty-five (45) days from the end 14 of the first calendar quarter after the Petition Date and will cover the period to and including 15 the last day of the first quarter after the Petition Date. This procedure will continue at three 16 month intervals thereafter. Because GlassRatner is not being employed as a professional under 17 section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code, it will not be submitting regular fee applications pursuant 18 to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code. GlassRatner will, however, submit certain 19 reports described above.

20 VII. GENERAL DISINTERESTEDNESS OF GLASSRATNER

21 Although the Debtor does not propose to retain GlassRatner under section 327 of the 22 Bankruptcy Code, GlassRatner has nonetheless performed a computerized conflict check and, 23 to the best of its knowledge and except to the extent disclosed in the Hughes Declaration, does 24 not hold any interest adverse to the interests of the Debtor's estate. Furthermore, by the 25 Hughes Declaration, Mr. Hughes provides full and complete disclosure in order to demonstrate 26 that the Firm satisfies all requirements that would be imposed by the Bankruptcy Code and 27 Bankruptcy Rules for employment in this case.
28

1 GlassRatner has agreed not to share with any person or entity any compensation 2 received by it in the Debtor's case, except as among the members, associates, and employees of 3 GlassRatner. Neither GlassRatner, nor any of its principals, employees, agents or affiliates has 4 any connection with the Debtor, its creditors, the United States Trustee or any other party with 5 an actual or potential interest in the Bankruptcy Case or their respective attorneys or 6 accountants, except as set forth in the Hughes Declaration.

7 From time to time, GlassRatner has provided services, and will continue to provide 8 services, to certain creditors of the Debtor and various other parties adverse to the Debtor in 9 matters unrelated to the Bankruptcy Case.

10 These unrelated matters involve attorneys, financial advisors, and creditors, some of 11 whom may be claimants or parties with actual or potential interests in this case or may 12 represent such parties.

13 GlassRatner personnel and their family members may have business associations with 14 certain creditors of the Debtor unrelated to the Bankruptcy Case. Additionally, in the ordinary 15 course of its business, GlassRatner may engage counsel or other professionals in unrelated 16 matters who now represent, or who may in the future represent, creditors, or other interested 17 parties in the Bankruptcy Case.

18 The Debtor maintains business relationships with numerous shareholders, lenders, 19 creditors and other parties. GlassRatner may have advisory or other commercial or 20 professional relationships with such entities or persons completely unrelated to the Debtor or its 21 business affairs. No such relationships are in any way related to the Bankruptcy Case.

22 Because the Debtor is a large enterprise with numerous creditors and other 23 relationships, GlassRatner is unable to state with certainty that every client relationship or other 24 connection has been disclosed. In this regard, if GlassRatner discovers additional information 25 that requires disclosure, GlassRatner will file a supplemental disclosure with the Court.

26 GlassRatner has not been retained to assist any entity or person other than the Debtor on 27 matters relating to, or in connection with, the Bankruptcy Case. If this Court approves the 28 proposed employment of GlassRatner by the Debtor, GlassRatner will not accept any

1 engagement or perform any services for any entity or person other than the Debtor in the 2 Bankruptcy Case. GlassRatner will, however, continue to provide professional services to, and 3 engage in commercial or professional relationships with, entities or persons that may be 4 creditors of the Debtor or parties in interest in the Bankruptcy Case, provided, however, that 5 such services do not relate to, or have any direct connection with, the Bankruptcy Case.

6 The Debtor does not owe GlassRatner any amount for services performed or expenses 7 incurred prior to the Petition Date, and thus, GlassRatner is not a prepetition creditor of the 8 Debtor.

9 Accordingly, the Debtor believes that GlassRatner is a “disinterested person” as defined 10 in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code.

11 VIII. INDEMNIFICATION AND LIABILITY LIMITATION PROVISIONS

12 The Engagement Contract contains standard indemnification and limitation of liability 13 language with respect to GlassRatner’s services. Notwithstanding any provisions of the 14 Engagement Contract to the contrary, in accordance with the Protocol, GlassRatner has agreed 15 otherwise, as set forth below.

16 With respect to Mr. Hughes in his capacity as CRO, the Debtor shall indemnify the 17 CRO on the same terms as provided to the Debtor’s directors under the Debtor’s by-laws and 18 applicable state law.

19 With respect to the Additional Personnel, the Debtor shall have no obligation to 20 indemnify GlassRatner or to provide contribution or reimbursement to GlassRatner for any 21 claim or expense that is either (a) judicially determined to have resulted primarily from the 22 willful misconduct, gross negligence, bad faith or self-dealing of GlassRatner; or (b) settled 23 prior to a judicial determination as to GlassRatner’s willful misconduct, gross negligence, bad 24 faith or self-dealing but determined by the Court, after notice and a hearing, to be a claim or 25 expense for which GlassRatner should not receive indemnity, contribution or reimbursement 26 under the terms of the Engagement Contract.

27 If GlassRatner believes that it is entitled to the payment of any amounts by the Debtor 28 on account of the Debtor’s indemnification with respect to the Additional Personnel, including

1 without limitation the advancement of defense costs, before the earlier of (a) the entry of an 2 order confirming a chapter 11 plan in this Bankruptcy Case (that order having become a final 3 order no longer subject to appeal) and (b) the entry of an order closing, dismissing or 4 converting this chapter 11 case, GlassRatner must file an application to this Court seeking such 5 payment, and the Debtor may not pay any such amounts to GlassRatner before the entry of an 6 order by this Court approving the payment; provided, however, that the foregoing is intended 7 only to specify the period of time during which the Court shall have jurisdiction over any 8 request for indemnification by GlassRatner, and is not a provision limiting the duration of the 9 Debtor's obligation to indemnify GlassRatner.

10 Finally, notwithstanding any provisions of the Engagement Contract to the contrary, 11 GlassRatner has agreed not to raise or assert any defense based upon jurisdiction, venue, 12 abstention or otherwise to the jurisdiction and venue of this Court to hear or determine any 13 controversy or claims with respect to, in connection with, arising out of, or in any way related 14 to GlassRatner's engagement in this Bankruptcy Case.

15 IX. BASIS FOR RELIEF

16 Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, that a debtor in 17 possession "after notice and a hearing, may use, sell or lease, other than in the ordinary course 18 of business, property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 363(b). Under applicable case law in this and 19 other circuits, if a debtor's proposed use of its assets pursuant to section 363(b) of the 20 Bankruptcy Code represents a reasonable business judgment on part of the debtor, such use 21 should be approved. See e.g., Myers v. Martin (In re Martin), 91 F.3d 389, 395 (3d Cir. 1996)
22 (citing Fulton State Bank v. Schipper (In re Schipper), 933 F.3d 513, 515 (7th Cir. 1991));

27 purpose" test to evaluate motions brought pursuant to section 363(b)); In re Integrated

2 business decision the directors of a corporation acted on an informed basis, in good faith and in 3 the honest belief that the actions were in the best interests of the company.’”).

4 Bankruptcy courts have analyzed the propriety of a debtor’s employment of corporate 5 restructuring officers, advisors and professionals under section 363 on numerous occasions and 6 have determined it is an appropriate exercise of the debtor’s business judgment to employ a 7 restructuring professional in this manner. See In re Westcliff Medical Laboratories, Inc., Case

18 Corp., Case No. 05-60200 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Jan 17, 2007).

19 A debtor, pursuant to section 363(b), may employ one or more professionals to act as 20 their restructuring officers or managers or crisis officers or managers. See In re Tokheim Corp., 21 Case No. 02-13437 (RJN) (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 25, 2003). The retention of interim corporate 22 officers and other temporary employees is proper under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.
23 Numerous courts have authorized retention of officers utilizing this provision of the 24 Bankruptcy Code, including this Court. See In re Westcliff Medical Laboratories, Inc., Case 25 No. 10-16743 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. June 25, 2010); In re Fatburger Restaurants of California,

2 (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 16, 2007); In re Global Home Products, LLC, Case No. 06-10340 (KG)

4 (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 15, 2006).

5 Additionally, the Court's general equitable powers codified in section 105(a) of the 6 Bankruptcy Code provide ample authority for the relief requested herein. Section 105(a) of the 7 Bankruptcy Code empowers the court to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is 8 necessary to carry out the provisions of this title." "See 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). See also United 9 States v. Energy Resources Co., 495 U.S.545, 549 (1990); In re Continental Airlines, 203 F.3d
10 203, 211 (3d Cir. 2000) ("Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code supplements courts' 11 specifically enumerated bankruptcy powers by authorizing orders necessary or appropriate to 12 carry out provisions of the Bankruptcy Code."); Baron & Budd, P.C. v. Unsecured Asbestos 13 Claimants Comm., 2005 WL 435207, *14 (D.N.J. Feb. 25, 2005) (reciting the power of the 14 bankruptcy court to "... issue any order ... that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the 15 provisions of ... [title 11]").

16 The terms and conditions of the Engagement Contract were negotiated by the Debtor 17 and GlassRatner at arm's length and in good faith. The Debtor submits that the employment of 18 GlassRatner is a sound exercise of its business judgment and satisfies section 363 of the 19 Bankruptcy Code as GlassRatner's services are necessary and essential to the Debtor's 20 restructuring efforts. Mr. Hughes has extensive experience providing management and 21 financial services to distressed companies and those involved in the gaming industry.

22 A. Retention of GlassRatner Is Critical to the Debtor's Success

23 Denying the relief requested herein would deprive the Debtor of the assistance of a 24 highly qualified CRO and disadvantage the Debtor and all parties in interest. Indeed, the 25 Debtor would be forced to engage a new CRO who lacks a thorough understanding of the 26 Debtor's business and restructuring initiatives – both already in progress and soon to be 27 implemented. Further, hiring a new CRO would involve a learning curve, significant time and 28 additional resources –which are in short supply given the brief timeframe within which the

1 Debtor seeks to emerge from this Bankruptcy Case. Accordingly, the Debtor respectfully 2 submits that the services provided by GlassRatner are critical to the success of the Bankruptcy
3 Case and requests that the Court approve the Engagement Contract in substantially the form 4 attached to the Hughes Declaration as Exhibit 1.

5 The Debtor submits that the employment of GlassRatner and Mr. Hughes under the 6 terms of the Engagement Contract would greatly benefit the Debtor's estate and creditors. The 7 absence of executives capable of achieving a successful reorganization would hinder the 8 Debtor's ability to reorganize in an efficient and effective manner.

9 Moreover, Mr. Hughes is qualified for the position for which he is being employed.
10 The Debtor has determined that the terms of the Engagement Contract are within the range of 11 those for senior executive officers employed with the companies of comparable size, value and 12 reputation. Accordingly, the Debtor's decision to enter into the Engagement Contract reflects 13 an exercise of the Debtor's sound business judgment.
